Anna Shvedova left you personal messages...

Anna Shvedova Beware of men who need you only in a good mood, mainly after 11.

23.05.12

Men who put you in second place after their favorite hobby and want to see you only after a full recovery.

Appreciate the man who hugs tightly if you cry and cover your mouth with a kiss when you are angry.

Do not waste time on a man who does not like to walk (his legs get tired) or relax in nature (mosquitoes will bite him), a man inclined to nag will never become a reliable support.
